

PES Member Benefits

Updated 9/28/2018

Benefits available to all PES members include:

- Access to the PES “Members Only” section of the website
 - Inclusion in “Find-a Doc” section
 - “Find-a-colleague” section
 - Educational materials, job board, toolkits, practice guidelines, and other great resources!
- Access to Journals
 - Hormone Research in Paediatrics
 - Growth, Genetics, and Hormones
 - Pediatric Endocrine Review (volume 12/13)
- Educational Activity Opportunities
 - Board Review Course and Clinical Update course at reduced rate
 - Patient/parent education activities and materials
 - ESPE’s E-Learning web portal
 - MOC2 and MOC4 activities (i.e.. Obesity SIG exam, MOC/QI projects, Ethics SIG MOC exam)
 - Leadership Advantage, a PES-specific leadership certificate program
- Scholarly Opportunities
 - Participation in Performance Improvement Modules (PIMs) and PES’s Quality Improvement Initiatives
 - Mentor-Mentee program
 - Ability to post information regarding ongoing clinical research trials and registries
- Other Member Benefits
 - Monthly President’s Letter by email (newsletter)
 - Networking opportunity with Pediatric Endocrinologists from around the world
 - Member-Only discussion boards
 - Opportunity to submit an email survey to membership, upon committee and board approval

Additional benefits for Regular and Advanced Practice Provider Members include:

- Right to vote on all issues requiring approval of the Members
- Right to hold office and serve on committees/SIGs
- Receipt of regular registration discount for annual PAS/PES Annual Scientific Meeting

Additional benefits for Fellow/In-Training Members include:

- Reduced fellow/in-training rate for the PAS/PES Annual Scientific Meeting
- Spring Retreat at reduced prices (for first- and second-year fellows)
- Eligibility to apply for:
 - Research Fellowship Awards (for third- and fourth-year fellows) - several at up to $50,000 each
 - Eligibility to apply for Clinical Scholar Awards (up to $50,000 per year for Junior Faculty)
 - Annual travel scholarships
 - Human Growth Foundation Award
 - AAP and PES Leona Cuttler Award
 - Visiting Fellowship Program
 - Rising Star Award
- Opportunity to serve as a “fellow” member of a committee/SIG, appointed at the discretion of the President-Elect in consultation with the committee/SIG chair

Additional benefits for Associate Members include:

- Reduced associate rate for the PAS/PES Annual Scientific Meeting
- Eligibility to participant in:
 - Special Interest Groups (SIGS)

